Part III Notice of Non-Responsive Amendment

1. The supplemental response filed on 1/24/2002 (paper #22) is not fully responsive to the prior Office action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s): the remarks of paper #22 indicate the originally presented claim 54 as well as each of the newly presented independent claims 57, 86, 123 and 157 are drawn to originally elected species 13 which via paper # 4 is made of record as being drawn to figure 13. The remarks do not indicate where proper support for the originally elected invention of claim 54 is provided in relation to the embodiment described with respect to figure 13, and more specifically with respect to the instant communication, the remarks do not provide indications of proper support for each of the newly presented inventions of each of claims 57, 86, 123, and 157 which is supposed to be supported with reference to species 13/figure 13. There is no mention of a telephone answering apparatus in relation to the description of figure 13 starting on page 65 of the description originally filed. There are also no remarks indicative of how each of the newly presented independent claims 57, 86, 123, and 157 would be considered as being drawn to the same invention of originally elected claim 54, it is not clear that any of the newly independent claims are drawn to the same invention as that of claim 54, nor is it clear that the newly independent claims are drawn to one invention that is the same as each of the others. Thus it is not clear which of the prior species of the invention the additional embodiments referred to in the remarks of paper #20 correspond to and/or why such additional embodiments as now presented are not restrict-able to other of the previously presented species or distinct among themselves. As was stated in the previous communication, the previous amendments (papers #6 and #16) presented the elected claims as corresponding to species XIII (figure 13) but the description supportive of figure 13 is not clearly supportive of the newly added claims. Nor are each of the distinct features therein presented via the originally elected claim 54. As such it is not clear if the amendment as presented is complete as submitted, however, the applicant should have the opportunity to complete the response as intended if this was merely overlooked. See 37 CFR 1.111.

Art Unit: 2645

Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment.
EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
